

BONNER FELLOWS PROGRAM

ECHOING GREEN- NEW YORK CITY

PLACEMENT OVERVIEW

Fellowship Position Title: Work on Purpose Program Fellow

Fellowship Position Summary: The Work on Purpose Program Fellow will be part of a small, dynamic team working on the edge of social innovation, touching 150,000 people with the Work on Purpose message in order to meaningfully impact Millennial career paths. The Work on Purpose program is a training series designed to help young people prepare a career that has personal meaning and public impact. The Fellows's primary responsibility will be to form new and deepen existing partnerships to support, amplify, and connect the the social change career field, enhance the way institutions prepare their stakeholders to develop impact-driven careers (i.e. Colleges, Non-Profits and Companies), and train the Millennial generation on creating meaningful careers.

Specific Position Activities:

- 1) research, identify and outreach to Work on Purpose partners, and track partners in database;
- 2) assist in development and assessment of Work on Purpose presentations and workshops; and
- 3) deepen the Work on Purpose relationship with the Bonner Network.
